Message from the President

The last three months have seemed like we've been on a roller coaster. We were approved for the loan on 220 Historic West 13th but we lost the bid on the house. Our hope is that the new owners will complete the plan we had envisioned for it. We forwarded all the information on to them with hopes it will aid them in their planning. Time will tell....

The other good news from 13th Street is that the Police Chief and our crime watch officer got the house at 208 Historic West 13th boarded up for safety reasons. With any luck (and a few phone calls from neighbors) the City will move to tear down this dangerous house before someone gets hurt on the property. I still think 13th street is going to recover. Help is on the way!

Rob Sparks

➤ The February meeting with Police Chief Ed Leonard and officer Mark Brizendine was a great success. We've added Mark's phone number to "The Information Page". Don't hesitate to call him about any of those problems you just can't see to get assistance on - loud vehicles, barking dogs, suspicious activities, etc.

➤ 220 West 13th Street: ADNA made an offer on this property in February. Unfortunately, we did not get the house. We had been approved for funds by Historic Landmarks of Indiana as well. Thank you to all who worked on this endeavor!

➤ 208 West 13th Street: We've been reporting on this home's demolition for some time now. It is still standing but was made much more secure recently thanks to Mark Brizendine (our community police rep) who made sure the property was boarded up.

Tip of the Month: Did you know that butter (real butter) can be used to remove musty smells from drawers and closets? Just place a pound in the offending location for 24 hours and the butter will absorb the odor. Just remember to discard the butter after it has done its duty!!

Send us your tips! If used in the newsletter you'll receive an ADNA mug!!

Remember When

231 West 12th Street in 1901 and 2001. Can you believe this is the same house? It's amazing what happens in one hundred years. At some point, due to deterioration or a change in fashion, the tower and porch were removed and the home was reconfigured to what we see today. This home was owned by Bob Cridge for many years and is now owned by Stepping Stones.
